##

The Broomfield Police Department is requesting your assistance to help identify three robbery suspects.

On Tuesday, November 19, 2013 at approximately 5:30 PM three men, described as possibly being Asian or Hispanic, entered the AAA Nail Supply – 6570 W. 120th Avenue, Unit #C2; two of the men walked around the store and acted as though they were shopping while a third man stood outside the front door of the business and subsequently entered the store.

After a few minutes one of the men pointed a gun at the employee and demanded his wallet. During this time the other two men stole cash from the registers and a safe box containing cash, checks and credit card receipts.

The suspect that pointed the gun at the employee is described as, an adult Asian or Hispanic male, approximately 6 ft. tall and 180 lbs., wearing black pants and shirt, a dark green vest and black baseball style hat with a green dragon across the front and metallic sticker on the brim; he has long dark hair that is pulled back in a ponytail. The two accomplices are described as adult, Asian or Hispanic males, wearing dark pants and dark hoodies.

A car possibly associated with this crime is described as an older model grey/silver Honda sedan.

Attached are surveillance photographs and video of the incident. If you have information regarding this incident or the identification of these suspects please contact Broomfield Detective Dale Hammell at 303-464-5733.
