Board of Equalization Business

(a) Report of Assessor on Status of 2016 Real and Personal Property Valuation

Assessor Sandy Herbison Summarized the Report of Assessor on Status of 2016 Real and Personal Property Valuation which provided information on Real Property Protests and Personal Property Protests. Assessor Protest is the first level of Protest. The report also shows the accounts that have not filed a Personal Property declaration. All business owners are required to file a Declaration. For Real Property, 1,900 Notices of Value were sent out by the Assessor's office in this interim year, 169 Protests were received. Personal Property is valued each year and 1,200 notices were issued and 13 Protests were received. She noted there was a decrease in Personal Property Appeals. The hearings will take place July 26 and 27, 2016.

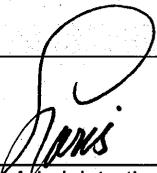

Petitions and Communications

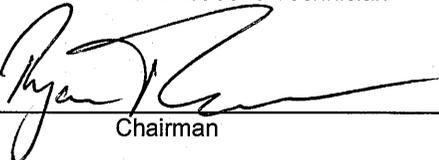

The next proposed Meeting will be August 4, 2016.
