Story Times:

Baby Story Time
 For children newborn - 24 months and a caregiver

Thursdays 9:15-9:35 a.m. or 10-10:20 a.m.
 An interactive story time focusing on the three "Rs" - Rhythm, Rhyme and Repetition. Enjoy age appropriate books, songs, rhymes, and baby sign language - all intended to promote language development and early literacy in a lively and fun atmosphere! Facts on brain development, early literacy and social emotional growth are shared throughout the program. Includes time for adults to socialize and babies to play. No registration required.

Toddler Story Time
 For children 21 - 35 months and a caregiver

Mondays 10-10:30 a.m. or 10:45-11:15 a.m. Wednesdays 9:15-9:45 a.m. or 10-10:30 a.m.
 Toddlers actively participate in stories, music and movement enhancing their social, emotional and language development while fostering a love for reading and books. Caregivers will be introduced to early literacy skills they can practice with their children to prepare them for successful learning when they enter school. Registration is required. There are no drop-ins for Toddler Story Time.

Session 3 Toddler Story Time Dates
 Mondays: January 9-February 13
 Wednesdays: January 11-February 15

Registration information for Session 3:
 Broomfield Resident Registration : Dec. 12-18
 Open Registration: Dec .19-Jan. 8

For more information and to register go to www.broomfieldchildrenslibrary.org

Preschool Story Time
 For children 3 - 5 years old who can sit on their own

Tuesdays 10:30-11 a.m. or Thursdays 1:30-2 p.m.
 Preschoolers enjoy stories and songs that develop early literacy skills and foster curiosity. This program is reserved for children ages three to five who can sit on their own and comfortably participate in a variety of literature based activities geared towards preparing children for learning to read. Asking children to attend without their caregivers helps to develop a sense of independence that will be needed as they start school. No registration required.

Family Story Time
 All ages welcome!
 Thursdays 10:45-11:15 a.m.

This program features participatory stories, songs and movement activities geared towards promoting early literacy and building a foundation for a love of books. Age appropriate activities are presented in three segments from younger to older in order to meet the developmental needs of babies, toddlers, and preschoolers. Transitions are built into the program so younger children can take a break if necessary. Join us for a wonderful shared experience for the whole family! No registration required

Family Early Literacy Time
 Families of all ages welcome, but the focus will be newborns - Pre-K
 Fourth Saturday of the month 11-11:45 a.m.
 This month: January 28, 2017

Stories, books, fingerplays & songs will focus on an early literacy skill, followed by a fun craft. Families will have the opportunity to practice activities they can use at home to learn early literacy skills needed for children to become successful learners in school. Please pick up a FREE ticket at the Children's Desk the morning of the program. Next month: February 25

What is Early Literacy?
 You provide opportunities for learning through everyday experiences with your child including talking, singing, reading, writing and playing. Through these mindful interactions you can help your child develop early literacy skills including building vocabulary, letter knowledge, print awareness, print motivation, phonological awareness and narrative skills. Visit our Early Literacy page on the Children's Library website for more information and resources to help support your child's early literacy development.
