

Understood

www.understood.org

Online support (in English and Spanish) for parents of children with learning and attention issues. Discover expert-approved apps and games for children, practical ideas for social, emotional and behavioral challenges, key questions to help you weigh your options and more.

International Children's Digital Library

en.childrenslibrary.org

The mission of the ICDL is to make the best children's literature available online free of charge to support children in becoming effective members of the global community. Read books in multiple languages from around the world.

Colorín Colorado

www.colorincolorado.org

A free web-based service that provides information in English and Spanish, activities and advice for educators and Spanish-speaking families of English language learners (ELLs). Find information, resources, videos and research to help your child become a good reader and successful student.

Fred Roger's Center Early Learning Environment (Ele)

<http://www.fredrogerscenter.org/>

An innovative online space with training videos where early educators, families and caregivers find and share digital resources that support early learning and development for children ages birth to five.

Center for Early Literacy Learning

www.earlyliteracylearning.org

Promotes the adoption and sustained use of evidence-based early literacy learning. Find specific materials and videos to assist you in guiding your child's early literacy development through the use of fun and exciting literacy learning experiences. Includes information on adaptations for young children with disabilities.

Children's Library

www.broomfieldchildrenslibrary.org

The Children's Library serves readers from birth to middle school and the people who work with them, including family members, child care providers and teachers. Visit our website to find information on all our library programs, early literacy and to access a wide array of online resources for children and adults to use in the library and at home.

Websites for Parents

BROOMFIELD
Mamie Doud Eisenhower
PUBLIC LIBRARY

3 Community Park Road | Broomfield, CO 80020
720.887.2315 | www.broomfieldlibrary.org

Zero to Three

www.zerotothree.org

Offers information for professionals and parents. Parent section includes information, videos, graphics and podcasts on challenging behaviors, play, early literacy and child development, with a special section on the development of the brain. Handouts are available online in English and Spanish.

Born Learning

www.bornlearning.org

Sponsored by United Way and other major family organizations, this English and Spanish website helps parents, caregivers and communities create quality learning opportunities for young children.

Reading Rockets

www.readingrockets.org

English and Spanish website offers a wealth of reading strategies, lessons and activities designed to help young children learn how to read and read better. Provides videos and reading resources to assist parents, teachers and other educators in helping struggling readers build fluency, vocabulary and comprehension skills. Find children's book lists on a range of topics and themes.

LD Online

www.ldonline.org

The world's leading website in English and Spanish on learning disabilities and ADHD. LD Online seeks to help children and adults reach their full potential by providing accurate and up-to-date information, advice and videos about learning disabilities and ADHD.

Consumer Product Safety Commission

www.cpsc.gov

Website, in English and Spanish, of the Federal Agency that regulates safety. Find product recalls, an extensive library, videos, links to other sites and a way to report unsafe products.

American Academy of Pediatrics

www.healthychildren.org

Listen to or read the online resources, videos and information for parents in English and Spanish, including immunizations schedules, child care books, growth charts, toilet training and nutrition.

Autism Society of Colorado

www.autismcolorado.info

Seeks to share information about autism with the local Colorado community. This includes families, providers and educators with a direct connection to autism, as well as the larger community including businesses and organizations.

Get Ready to Read!

www.getreadytoread.org

Supports educators, parents and young children in the development of early literacy skills before kindergarten. Resources and information promote skill-building, communication between adults, and ways to address concerns. Find free screening tools to assess where your child is at any given point and decide whether to introduce new skills, practice, offer additional instruction or support.

Center on the Social Emotional Foundations for Early Learning

<http://csefel.vanderbilt.edu/>

Information about the social emotional development and school readiness of young children birth to age five. User-friendly training materials, videos and print resources.

NAEYC for Families

<http://families.naeyc.org/>

The family section of the NAEYC website is specifically geared towards topics of concern for families, such as finding a quality child care program, health, nutrition, early literacy and child development. Sign up for monthly newsletters for parenting tips and information about child development.

First Signs

www.firstsigns.org

Dedicated to educating parents and professionals about autism and related disorders to ensure the best developmental outcomes for every child. Provides resources and videos for monitoring development, concerns about a child, the screening and referral process and how to share concerns about a child.

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention- Parent Information

www.cdc.gov/parents

Find information and videos from all of CDC, covering everything from safety at home to immunization schedules and developmental milestones. Find information in Spanish on the main page www.cdc.gov.

StoryBlocks

www.storyblocks.org

View short videos in multiple languages, including English and Spanish, of songs, fingerplays and rhymes you can learn to do with your child to develop early literacy skills.

If Not You, Who?

www.ifnotyouwho.org

Free membership to this program provides access to information and activities to help parents prepare their preschool age children for kindergarten.