

Broomfield City Council Training and Travel Report

Elected Official Name: Sam Taylor, Ward 3

Date of Travel or Training: December 2-4, 2010

Description of Travel or Training: NLC 2010 Congress of Cities and Exposition is an annual conference of city officials designed to give elected officials training and introduced them to other officials throughout the United States. Breakout sessions I attended included:

How to Ensure Safe Communities and Successful Citizens after Arrest Serving Children and Families in Tough Economic Times

Seminars attended:

Effective Tools for Communication and Innovative Thinking Restoration of Community: Fiscal Sustainability and Community Engagement

Conference $325.00 Seminars: $240.00

Total: $565.00

How this Travel or Training Benefited the Citizens of Broomfield:

The knowledge gained through seminars, from speakers, and interaction with other elected officials with different experience and insight into issues will make me a better Council Member for Broomfield.

The Conference changes host cities every year, and a good attendance in Denver helps boost the Metro area's viability as a Conference Destination.
