Seventeenth Judicial District Courts: Caretakers of Justice

Broomfield Self Help Resource Center (SHRC)

The 17th Judicial District is committed to help our citizens clarify the often complex and intimidating legal process. The Broomfield Self Help Resource Center (SHRC) will provide individuals, who do not have attorneys, with free legal information and assistance related to Broomfield County or District Court cases such as civil matters, probate matters, domestic relations and restraining orders. The staff can answer questions about legal forms, the legal system and the legal process, but cannot provide legal advice. Public access computers are available for research and completing forms.
